Teacher Certification

Section 80-4.3

Background:

There has been a continuous shortage of teachers who hold Students with Disabilities Generalist certificate titles in New York State. The Department has been considering ways to increase the number of qualified certificate holders in this area and has worked with the field to address these shortages.

Subpart 80-3 and Section 80-4.3 of the Commissioner's Regulations

Background:

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) eliminated the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act of 2001 requirement that teachers be “Highly Qualified” in the area of their teaching assignment in order for local educational agencies (LEA) to receive certain federal aid. However, the Department is still required to ensure that educators in LEAs receiving federal funding fulfill state certification requirements.

Previously allowed to teach in another content area by school districts using the High, Objective, Uniform State Standard of Evaluation” (HOUSSE)

Subpart 80-3 and Section 80-4.3

Statement of Continued Eligibility (SOCE)

Option 1:

The statement of continued eligibility (SOCE) would be available in the areas of biology, chemistry, earth science, ELA, mathematics, physics, and social studies. Teachers who hold a students with disabilities generalist certificate in grades 7-12, have been assigned to teach a special class, and have at least three years of satisfactory full-time teaching experience in grades 7-12 on or before July 1, 2019, during which time they were considered Highly Qualified by a school district in one or more subject areas through the HOUSSE rubric, would be certified in those subject area(s) through the SOCE. To receive the SOCE in one or more subject areas, teachers must complete the required teaching experience prior to July 1, 2019.

Subpart 80-3 and Section 80-4.3

New York State 2017-18 Enacted Budget Directives

Current Initiatives in response to the 2017-18 Enacted Budget:

- Chapter 59 of the laws of 2017
 - Required an alternative funding methodology for the Special Class in an Integrated Setting (SCIS) program. NYSED is seeking to promote and expand inclusion opportunities for preschool students with disabilities.
 - In addition to the Office of Special Education, the Office of Early Learning, Rate Setting Unit, and Office of State Aid are contributing.
- Chapter 54 of the laws of 2017
 - Provided funding for a Special Education data solution. NYSED is using the funding to build a blueprint for a student services & provider management system.
 - In addition to the Office of Special Education, the Rate Setting/STAC Unit, Office of Audit Services, and Office of Information Technology Services are contributing.

Special Class in an Integrated Setting (SCIS) Funding

- To promote and expand preschool inclusion opportunities, NYSED has recommended the following:
 - Regents Early Childhood Workgroup’s Blue Ribbon Committee: create a single reimbursement structure for preschool inclusion classrooms where all students are enrolled and funded under a single reimbursement structure; $6 million for pilot programs was requested.
 - Develop new program models/staffing requirements to better reflect a variety of Early Childhood settings and student needs.
 - Students enrolled in SCIS programs should also be “dually enrolled” and “dually funded” in the State Administered Prekindergarten programs to offer the same opportunities afforded to resident students.
 - Authorize school districts to serve SCIS students in district-operated State Administered Prekindergarten programs without separate NYSED approval.
- NYSED will continue to pursue these recommendations for 2019-20 through budget/legislation requests, changes to regulations, and guidance.

Special Education Provider Data System

- NYSED is responsible for determining capacity for approved special education providers (e.g. preschool special education programs, school-age private providers and Special Act School District).
- NYSED relies on historic data, from several conflicting sources, paper processes, and manual input. We are not able to identify service availability or respond to special education capacity needs using comprehensive or timely information.
- With funding provided in the NYS budget, NYSED is developing a student services and provider information system which will enable NYSED to:
 - Provide parents, school districts, counties, state agencies and other stakeholders with relevant special education program and services information using a single, accessible source;
 - Help determine where targeted fiscal investments may be needed;
 - Improve NYSED processing timelines for program approval;
 - Better inform school district & BOCES program decisions. School districts will have more information to perform IDEA responsibilities.
- A 2019-20 budget recommendation will be made for Board of Regents consideration.
